

ADVANTAGE DIVERSITY

BC Communities Against Racism

The Advantage Diversity Kit was developed to encourage agencies in BC that are working to address racism and commemorate March 21st to speak with one voice.

The Kit is centered on a single communications strategy developed to ‘speak to’ the community at large and more specifically to potential community partners, such as, municipal officials, school boards and teachers, chambers of commerce, health practitioners and local business people.

The tools within the kit can be used to enhance already planned activities or initiate new ones. You can use the kit to get ideas for events and case studies that have been successful in communities around the province and tailor these to suit the needs and personality of your own community.

The kit also includes an Advantage Diversity poster and 5 postcards or you can order separately.
