Job Title: Community Integration Workshop Coordinator (Children/Youth)
Job Number: 1011
Department: Family Services Department
Classification: Program Coordinator 1 – Grid Level 12
Position Type: Regular Part-time (28 hrs/week)
Salary Range: Grid Level 12 – ($17.60 - $20.70 per hour)
Start Date: ASAP
Reports to: Manager of Family Services

DIVERSEcity Community Resources Society is accepting applications for a Regular, Part-Time position as a Community Integration Workshop Coordinator (Children/Youth). The position includes responsibility to develop, deliver and evaluate an afterschool hours program at 1-2 elementary schools in the Surrey area for children ages 6 to 12 years of age. The program works in partnership with the Surrey School District #36 and the City of Surrey – Parks, Recreation and Culture staff. The program delivers a homework club, workshops on social/emotional health and a recreational component conducted by City of Surrey staff.

The successful candidate will have excellent written and spoken English skills and a second language will be considered an asset. The position requires experience delivering age-appropriate afterschool hours programming to children ages 6 to 12, ability to work with parents, ability to understand and implement strong evaluation components, and work within a partnership model. The position requires experience in facilitating an afterschool hours program, with knowledge of child development, immigrants/refugees and group facilitation. Preference will be given to those candidates who possess education and/or training related to the position.
