Show your Support for Respect for All in your community and stand up for respect by becoming a Friend of Safe Harbour! You will be joining a growing network of individuals across your province and across Canada who care about making our community a more welcoming place to live.

As a Friend of Safe Harbour, show your support for Safe Harbour: Respect for All by simply:

- Signing up 5 of your friends, family members, neighbours, and colleagues to a monthly Safe Harbour E-Newsletter, which you will also receive.
- Wearing a Respect for All: Pass It On wristband and distributing Safe Harbour bookmarks
  - On the first Tuesday of every month, Respect for All Day*, please wear your 'Respect for All' wristband and tell your friends, family, and colleagues.
*(September 1st, October 6th, November 3<sup>d</sup>, December 2nd, 2009 and so on)
- Share a quick story, an anecdote, or send us a photo about how you've demonstrated respect for someone such as a newcomer to your community, someone with a disability, a senior, or someone of a different faith than you. In BC, please send your photos to amssash@amssa.org, in Manitoba, Alberta, Nova Scotia, please send your photos to nationalsafeharbour@amssa.org
