

BC TEAL is looking for interested ESL professionals to join the 'Teacher Training and Education' Special Interest Group (SIG). This SIG is especially for teacher trainers interested in topics such as:

- minimum entry requirements for student teachers.
- minimum requirements for teacher training courses.
- planning and development of effective adult education courses and programs.
- methodologies and practices.
- educational psychology and philosophy.
- design and use of instructional media.
- evaluation of student-teacher learning.
- evaluation of instruction.

If you are a teacher trainer and want to meet up with other teacher trainers who might be dealing with similar issues, contact admin@bctéal.org to get involved.

BC TEAL is looking for interested ESL tutors to join an online 'Tutoring' Special Interest Group (SIG). This SIG is especially for tutors interested in topics pertaining to teaching ESL in small group contexts.

If you are an ESL tutor and want to meet other tutors who might be dealing with similar issues, contact admin@bctéal.org to get involved.
