

VANCOUVER EARLY YEARS REFUGEE PROGRAM

For refugee women and their young children

"When the parent-child relationship is positive, children develop a sense of security, explore with confidence, and lean to communicate effectively."

Lori Roggman

The Vancouver Early Years Refugee Program supports refugee parents to have fun with their children and learn about their development. Parents will get information and support about parenting and have access to community resources and services related to their concerns and settlement process.

The program provides a structured home based program linked to a Refugee Strong Start program. Home Visitors will work with parents to actively identify and plan activities for their young children. The focus will be on the parent's role in providing affection, responding to the child's cues, encouraging and teaching.

This program accepts refugee families with young children who may not be eligible for IRCC funded programs.
