COVID-19 Analytical Snapshots

International Organization for Migration (IOM) | Organisation internationale pour les migrations (OIM)

Published online March-April 2020 | Publié en ligne mars-avril 2020

The IOM has produced COVID-19 Analytical Snapshots, a series of 1-2 page snapshots on the latest analyses from around the world on the migration and mobility-related issues stemming from COVID-19.

L'OIM a produit « COVID-19 Analytical Snapshots », une série d'instantanés de 1 à 2 pages sur les dernières analyses du monde entier sur les questions de migration et de mobilité découlant de COVID-19.

“These desk-based research ‘analytical snapshots’ draw upon the latest information and analysis currently being produced by researchers, analysts and organisations around the world as the COVID-19 pandemic unfolds. We recognize that this is a fast-moving environment, and so we will be updating existing topic snapshots as new material is published. Further snapshots on a range of topics are also in development. We would welcome inputs that you may have produced or have found useful in your work (please email to research@iom.int).”

Current topics:

- #1 - Tools and Resources
- #2 - Modern mobility systems and pandemics
- #3 - Travel restrictions & mobility
- #4 - Consular and other assistance for stranded migrants and travellers
- #5 - Migration research & analysis
- #6 - Stigmatization & discrimination
- #7 - Displaced population impacts
- #8 - Displacement events
- #9 - Immigration detention
