

Specialized Employment Services for Survivors of Violence / Abuse

LEADS Discover how to take charge of your future.

The LEADS program is a group-based program for survivors of violence and/or abuse, offered as part of WorkBC Employment Services.

In group workshops, various topics are covered to assist in preparing for, finding and maintaining employment, as well as health and safety. Each pathway will bring you a step closer to enhancing wellness, increasing employability and strengthening confidence.

Topics covered include Vision & Goals Setting, Building & Maintaining Safety, Career Research and Confidence Building, Addressing & Overcoming Impacts of Violence/Abuse, Resume and Cover Letters, and other relevant topics.

Services and Program Incentives may include*:

- Group Workshops & Employment Coaching
- Childcare Top-up Costs
- Food Cards
- Clothing Support
- Bus Transportation Costs

*Subject to funding and eligibility for WorkBC Employment Services

PATHWAY ONE:

Recognizing, Understanding and Overcoming Impact of Abuse

PATHWAY TWO:

Survivor Traits and Strengths

PATHWAY THREE:

Survivor Discoveries and Career Options

PATHWAY FOUR:

Beyond Survival

PATHWAY FIVE:

Renewing Employability Experiences

LEADS will be delivered fully online, meaning it can be accessed at home, with just a computer/tablet/phone and internet connection. If you need support with accessing this technology, contact us and we can work with you. The next intake in Vancouver will begin on January 12, 2021.

To find out more and register, contact Erin Grace at 604-908-1227.