MOSAIC is seeking an experienced, energetic, and passionate team leader to help drive the strategic vision of the organization in the role of Director of one of its key departments – Employment, Language, and Social Enterprise.

ABOUT THE ORGANIZATION:
MOSAIC is one of Canada’s largest Settlement and Employment Service Providers with 45 years of experience helping newcomers as they build their lives in Canada. Our mission is to enrich communities through services and advocacy, furthering the success and sense of belonging of newcomers and individuals from diverse backgrounds. MOSAIC runs over 38 programs and services that support and engage clients at 51 accessible locations in the Greater Vancouver and the Lower Mainland. Our diverse, 300+ staff is committed to driving our mission and upholding our values of excellence, innovation, inclusion, commitment, and integrity. These values serve as our guide for how we engage with clients, communities, partners, funders, staff, and volunteers.

We take pride in having a supportive, diverse, and inclusive workplace where employees can trust that their ideas and contributions are valued. We have been recognized in the 2020 list of Best Workplaces Managed by Women and the 2021 List of Best Workplaces™ in Canada (100-999 employees) by the Great Place to Work® Institute. Our employees benefit from incorporating many diverse perspectives, taking part in training and career growth opportunities.
ABOUT THE DEPARTMENT:
The Employment, Language, and Social Enterprise department offers free employment and language services as well as for-fee services through its “Social Enterprise for Good.” Employment Services include WorkBC and Non-WorkBC employment programs that help bridge the skills or training gaps of eligible British Columbians and newcomers to BC seeking employment. Language programs include Language Instruction for Newcomers to Canada (LINC) and childcare for families in LINC programs. For-fee Social Enterprise services include Assessment (IELTS, and CLBPT), Training (Diversity and Inclusion, ESL classes, and Workplace Essentials), and Interpretation and Translation. The revenue generated from our for-fee services is reinvested to create additional programming to meet the needs of the clients we serve.

ABOUT THE POSITION:
The Director of Employment, Language, and Social Enterprise, oversees and provides leadership to Employment, Language, and Social Enterprise services and programs, and is accountable for achieving stated outcomes in alignment with MOSAIC’s strategic plan, policies, and priorities. This position is also responsible for identifying and obtaining new sources of funding to develop new programs and service-delivery approaches to meet the evolving needs of newcomers. The Director plays a leadership role with our funders, partners, and stakeholders in the public, private, and community sectors. As part of the Executive Leadership Team, the director is a key partner in the overall strategic direction of the organization through active participation in the development and implementation of strategic goals in close collaboration with other directors.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES:

• Participate in the annual planning and management of the organization’s long-term vision and strategic direction with the Board and CEO, and lead implementation of one or more of the identified goals
• Maintain a working knowledge of immigrant and refugee issues, trends in the local labour market, and services provided by MOSAIC’s social enterprises
• Engage with relevant stakeholders, policy-makers, and funders in the field of immigrant and refugee settlement
• Set the strategy for the Employment, Language, and Social Enterprise portfolios; oversee the identification of client needs and funding sources, and program proposal development
• Develop new and enhance established partnerships and relations in service delivery
• Lead contract negotiations with funders and ensure that annual goals and contractual obligations are met
• Lead program innovation through research and development
• Represent the organization at local, provincial, and national coalitions, networks, events and/or committees, and report back on the implications to the organization and clients/communities served
• Oversee staff and program operations at multiple locations
• Oversee the department’s annual budget and ensure financial integrity and accountability
• Participate in the development and implementation of the organization’s financial strategic goals to ensure sustainability
