Executive Director, South Vancouver Neighbourhood House
(Internal/External Posting)

About ANHBC and South Vancouver Neighbourhood House
The Association of Neighbourhood Houses of BC (ANHBC) builds healthy and engaged neighbourhoods by connecting people and strengthening their capacity to create change.

ANHBC is the legal entity and umbrella organization made up of eight neighbourhood houses, an outdoor camp and central services. We operate more than 300 community-based programs and services for a diversity of participants. At ANHBC, we are committed to Truth and Reconciliation, decolonization and anti-racism, and together with community, we build strong and supportive relationships at welcoming and inclusive sites throughout Metro Vancouver. To learn more about ANHBC, please visit http://www.anhbc.org.

ANHBC is currently seeking an experienced executive who shares ANHBC's values to join our senior leadership team and provide leadership to South Vancouver Neighbourhood House (SVNH).

About You
As a future-oriented leader and strategic thinker, the successful candidate will demonstrate a proven record of strong leadership skills and an ability to work effectively and collaboratively with staff, volunteers and a volunteer Community Board, as well as funders, community partners and local groups, to achieve the organization's mission and vision, develop strategic directions, goals and plan, and execute and follow through the plan both during and post this pandemic.

About the Position
Working within the ANHBC senior leadership team, the Executive Director of SVNH will report to the CEO of ANHBC with respect to operational and association-wide responsibilities, and has functional accountability to the SVNH Community Board with respect to the priorities at the local community level. The successful candidate will lead a diverse and dedicated team of more than 90 staff, hundreds of volunteers and be responsible for an annual budget around $6.4M. A detailed job description available upon request.

Qualifications
- A minimum of five years of senior level management/leadership experience, ideally in a non-profit environment
- Strong strategic planning skills: Connect vision, mission and strategic goals, to develop plans to achieve them
- Strong leadership and organizational skills: Broad knowledge and experience in place-based strategies, community development initiatives, and programs/services that promote social justice and inclusion
- Excellent verbal and written communication: Ability to write reports and articulate complex ideas and messages
- Experience in fund development and grant writing; Donor engagement and social enterprise experience an asset
- Excellent interpersonal skills and an ability to build and nurture internal and external relationships
- Knowledge of community development principles is essential; experience working with a diverse community including populations such as seniors, LGBTQ2S+, Indigenous people, newcomers and precariously housed
- In-depth knowledge of the South Vancouver community
- Human resource, financial, administration and program management, development and evaluation
- Knowledge of additional languages and cultures will be considered an asset

Hours & Location: This is a regular full time position (35 hours per week, 5-day work week) that requires a consistent in-person presence at SVNH.

Salary & Benefits: Competitive benefits package including group medical and pension; salary range from 86K to 108K depends on skills and experience level
