

University of Victoria

Are you required to take a standardized English test to work, study, or live in Canada?

If your answer is "yes," a team of University of Victoria researchers led by Professor Li-Shih Huang would like to hear from you!

We are looking for participants who are/were required to take a standardized English test (e.g., IELTS™ or TOEFL®) in order to:

- have a degree or professional credential recognized so you can work in Canada;
- study at a college or university in Canada;
- gain Canadian citizenship.

If one or more of these applies to you, please contact us. If you choose to participate, you will be paid for your time.
